

RESPONSIBILITY[®]

I am conscientious and trustworthy, with a conviction to follow through on commitments and stay true to a great sense of integrity and reliability.

Academic Life

- Run for an office in student government that will value your commitment.
- Strive to work ahead of the class syllabus and always be prepared.
- Allow ample time to meet your many commitments, so as to avoid stress.

Career Goals

- Seek out environments that focus on follow through and getting a lot done.
- A more relaxed working situation will help you to avoid taking on too much.
- Outcomes, rather than processes, should be the aim of your position.

Decision Making

- Your ability to take ownership will help you to trust your gut.
- Look to others with your same sense of integrity in order to make decisions that align with your values.
- Set aside time in your busy schedule for contemplating major decisions.

Leadership Tips

- Apply patience when managing others whose sense of responsibility may not match up to your own.
- Your sense of obligation will help you to encourage others to follow through
- Taking the initiative will further the progress of your achievements.

Relationship Building

- Seek friends who are loyal and willing to reach out to enrich the relationship.
- Build relationships with mentors who also have a strong sense of integrity.
- Ensure that you always trust those around you.

Extracurriculars

- Join a club that needs a strong leader to make things happen.
- Your determination keeps you very busy, so schedule time to rest and refresh.
- Partner with someone talented in Discipline or Focus to facilitate something exciting.
