

FOCUS[®]

I am a goal setter with a clear sense of direction, and I am able to determine the best path towards achieving an objective, setting priorities, and following through.

Academic Life

- Outline your class syllabi with corresponding personal goals.
- Select classes and professors with a distinct endgame in mind.
- Join student government to work towards positive change.

Career Goals

- Spend time researching careers that interest you and planning strategies for getting there.
- Look for work environments that allow long periods of concentration.
- Project management jobs will feed your desire to follow steps to a destination.

Decision Making

- Write down each option and the steps to get there before deciding which path to take.
- Collaborate with a person who has Ideation to help you think outside of the box.
- Allot time to ponder your options without any distractions.

Leadership Tips

- You will be able to easily lead a group in implementing and executing plans.
- Show your strengths by thriving in structured and detail-oriented environments.
- Guide others toward their goals by sharing your ability to outline the needed processes.

Relationship Building

- Plan and coordinate events that facilitate spending time with those closest to you.
- Help a friend to come up with a plan that leads them to their goal.
- Invite a friend along for a structured activity like building a birdhouse.

Extracurriculars

- Take time for yourself in order to avoid spreading yourself too thin.
- Join an organization that needs assistance with planning or fundraising.
- Enjoy hobbies like puzzles and treasure hunts, that lay out clear procedures for you.
