

DISCIPLINE®

I have a highly structured mindset, intent on order and precision, and I am kept happiest through routines and timelines.

Academic Life

- Review all class syllabi and create a plan for your semester.
- Choose predictable classes with clear lesson plans and coursework.
- Join an organization on campus that needs a bookkeeper or historian.

Career Goals

- Secretarial and assistant work appeals to your sense of order.
- Choose work environments that are well-structured in order to avoid chaos.
- In planning your career, research and lay out all of the steps to make them easy to follow.

Decision Making

- Make detailed notes on all possible options before enacting a plan.
- Discuss decisions with those you admire in order to obtain their wisdom.
- Employ someone with Responsibility who will appreciate your need for follow through.

Leadership Tips

- Exercise your abilities by offering to take detailed notes during meetings.
- Your commitment to follow through will help you to bring others along towards success.
- Leadership like counseling will allow you to use your planning skills to help others.

Relationship Building

- Outline a fun treasure hunt for your friends that will bring everyone together.
- Schedule time to spend with those important to you.
- Inspire others to commit to a plan of action that will improve their lives.

Extracurriculars

- Organize your bookshelves and DVD collections for a relaxing afternoon
- Volunteer for an organization who needs assistance with details and planning.
- Create a routine that includes something enjoyable, like taking yourself to a movie once a week.

